

ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT

No. CR 05-834

NOT DESIGNATED FOR PUBLICATION

JESSIE EARL HILL
Appellant

v.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
Appellee

Opinion Delivered

March 16, 2006

PRO SE MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION
OF MOTION TO FILE BELATED REPLY BRIEF
[CIRCUIT COURT OF GRANT COUNTY, CR
95-38-1, HON. CHRIS E. WILLIAMS, JUDGE]

MOTION DENIED

PER CURIAM

Jessie Earl Hill was convicted of capital murder and sentenced to life imprisonment without parole. We affirmed. Hill v. State, 325 Ark. 419, 931 S.W.2d 64 (1996). Appellant Hill subsequently filed in the trial court a petition for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to Act 1780 of 2001. The trial court denied the petition, and appellant has lodged an appeal from that order in this court.

We previously denied appellant's motion to file a belated reply brief in an unpublished opinion. Hill v. State, CR 05-834 (Ark. December 15, 2005) (per curiam). Appellant has now filed what is styled a "petition for certiorari/motion for re-opening," in which he once again requests that this court accept his reply brief. We, accordingly, treat this as a motion to reconsider our previous ruling denying his motion to file a belated reply brief.

Appellant once again argues that the Arkansas Department of Correction is at fault for a delay of almost four months, but again fails to provide any substantiation for his claims. As appellant has failed to provide any additional information in his request, we find no reason to revisit our previous decision on the issue. Appellant's motion for reconsideration is denied.

Motion denied.
